1. Documents and individual achievement evidences within admissions to the enlarged group of specialities and fields of study of 04.00.00 programme ‘Chemistry’ shall be accepted only if they meet the following requirements.

2. Points for the established types of individual achievements within the enlarged group of specialities and fields of study 04.00.00 ‘Chemistry’ shall be summed; at the same time, only one documents shall be considered for one type of individual achievement unless otherwise is provided by this List of individual achievements of those applying for the admission to master’s degree programmes.

Information about publications in journals with a non-zero impact-factor

If there are no articles published in journals with a non-zero impact-factor, assigned shall be 0 (zero) points thereto.

Requirements applied to the content and design of the list of publications in journals with a non-zero impact-factor

Failure to comply with the requirements herein shall result in rejecting to consider the respective application and the applicant's publication activity and, consequently, in assigning zero points therefor.

The first page must contain a general list of articles, whose teams of authors include the applicant, according to the specified form, and bear a handwritten signature of the applicant. All table columns, except the one for the journal's impact-factor, must be filled out.

Publication activity Applicant's Full name: articles

| No | Publisher's imprint (authors, title of the publication, title of the journal, year volume, edition, pages) | Journal's impact-factor ¹ | Link to the article on the Internet or DOI |
|-----|--|--------------------------------------|--|
| 1 | | | |
| 2 | | | |
| 3 | | | |

I confirm that the information provided is correct:

Signature Applicant's full name Date

1. Impact-factor information is available for free on the journal's website. Its absence in the application shall not be the grounds for refusal in considering the documents submitted.
2. The second and subsequent pages must contain confirmations - full texts of the articles organised in the order of their appearance in the table.
3. If the article has not been published but accepted for publication, the column 'Online link or DOI' shall contain 'in print', and either a confirmation from an editorial office certified by its seal (Russian translated journals) or an email confirmation of acceptance for publication (publication status: accepted).

Evaluation criteria

Points for publications shall be scored based on the statistic approach commonly used by the Federal State Statistic Service. For each applicant, the total impact-factor shall be calculated to the nearest hundredths (Average Impact-Factor) of the journals, which have published applicants' articles, based on the journal's impact-factor valid for the previous year according to Journal Citation Reports (Web of Science Core Collection, Thomson Reuters) (priority) and CWTS Journal Indicators (Scopus bibliographic database produced by Elsevier, SNIP) data.

The median value of the Average Impact-Factor (AIF) shall be determined, on the basis of which the sample shall be divided into four quartiles. The median shall be a certain mark or level of an indicator (a value in the totality of data), dividing the ranked data (sorted in our case in descending order of AIF values) into two equal parts. One part of the reference data is below the mark, the other part is above.

Further, for each quartile a maximum score value shall be established, which shall correspond to the maximum AIF (see the table).

| Place of the total impact-factor in sampling, % | Quartile 1 | Quartile 2 | Quartile 3 | Quartile 4 |
|---|------------|------------|------------|------------|
| | 100 -75 | 75 -5 | 50 -25 | <25 |
| Points maximum | 25 | 20 | 15 | 10 |
| Points minimum | 20 | 15 | 10 | 5 |

Within each quartile, a ranking is carried out from the highest value of the total impact factor to the lowest, and points are awarded to a particular applicant according to the following formula:

$$\text{Points} = \frac{5 \times \text{Applicant's Average Impact-Factor}}{\text{Maximal Average Impact-Factor}} + \text{Quartile minimal point}$$

Documents and materials confirming the applicant's participation in scientific events

Accepted are the abstracts of full-time conferences in three recent years (2020 - 2024), with more than 50 attendants. The applicant must be a presenting author, which should be outlined in the abstracts.

If documents are submitted online, information about the abstracts must be provided in a single file in .pdf format.

A confirmation of the presence of abstracts shall be the title page of the collection of article for the respective conference, a conference programme or a copy of the abstracts from the collection of articles.

Requirements applied to the contents and layout of information about conference attendance

1. The first page must contain a general list of reports, whose teams of authors include the applicant, according to the specified form, and bear a handwritten signature of the applicant. All fields of the table must be filled in.
2. If there is no links to the conference web site, abstracts of this conference shall be rejected.
3. To have the conference abstracts considered, the number of attendees must be at least 50 persons; the conference area must be chemistry or relevant sciences.
4. The first page of the set of documents must meet requirements for design according to the sample below and contain the general list of the applicant's report abstracts and bear their handwritten signature.

Publication activity Applicant's Full name: report abstracts

| No | Publisher's imprint (authors, title of the publication, title of the conference, year, volume, pages) | Conference type ¹ | Number of attendees ² | Report type ³ | Diploma (available, not available) ⁴ | Web address of the conference web site |

¹ Please, indicate the conference type according to its title: All-Russia Youth, International Youth, All-Russia, International

² Please, indicate the number of the conference attendees (usually it is sufficient to indicate a named list of reporters at the end of the abstract book or calculate the number of presented reports).

³ oral/stand-based

⁴ If the report has won a Diploma of I, II or III degree, enter 'yes'.

| | | | | | | |
|-----|--|--|--|--|--|--|
| 1 | | | | | | |
| 2 | | | | | | |
| 3 | | | | | | |

I confirm that the information provided is correct:

Signature Applicant's full name Date

5. The second and subsequent pages must contain confirmations organised in the order of their appearance in the table:

- ❖ Title page
- ❖ Abstracts from the programme of the conference, which unambiguously discloses the report type
- ❖ Abstracts
- ❖ Diploma (if it is of I, II or III degree)

6. If reports were delivered orally, the initiate score of points shall be doubled. Confirmation of the report type shall be the programme of the conference, which clearly shows that the report has been delivered at the oral session.

7. If the report has won a diploma (of I, II, or III degree provided there is a confirmation; attendee's diploma or certificate shall not be accepted), a multiplying factor 1.5 is used.

Evaluation criteria

Assignment of initial points shall be conducted in accordance with the reference table.

| Conference level | Initial points |
|-------------------------|-----------------------|
| Youth all-Russia | 1 |
| Youth international | 2 |
| All-Russia | 3 |
| International | 5 |

For the conferences of the similar level with several report abstracts, initial points shall be multiplied by their number.

Each applicant's initial points scored shall be summed; a maximum score of initial points shall be determined, which shall be equal to 12 points.

Calculations of points scored by each applicant shall be carried out according to the following proportion:

$$\text{Points, scored by the applicant} = 12 \times \frac{\text{The totality of primary points scored by the applicant}}{\text{The highest score of primary points among all applicants}}$$

If resulting points are fractions, they shall be rounded to whole values.

Reference Letters

Letters of reference (as many as three (3)) from the faculty and research staff of the university that the applicant has graduated, as well as from employers correspondent to the field of study of the programme.

The signature must be verified by HR office of the place of work.

The letter shall indicate a degree programme for which the applicant is applying to study.

If the documents are submitted online, the scans of the letters shall be attached in a single .pdf file named 'Recommendations'.

Evaluated is the number of recommendation letters and the argumentation of the provided recommendation.

Points for the established types of individual achievements shall be summed; at the same time, only one documents shall be considered for one type of individual achievements unless otherwise is provided by this List of individual achievements of those applying for the admission to master's degree programmes.

Degree programmes 'Digital Technologies in Chemistry'

1. Documents and individual achievement evidences within admissions to the enlarged group of specialities and fields of study of 04.00.00 programme 'Chemistry' shall be accepted only if they meet the following requirements.

2. Points for the established types of individual achievements within the degree programme 'Digital Technologies in Chemistry' shall be summed; at the same time, only one documents shall be considered for one type of individual achievement unless otherwise is provided by this List of individual achievements of those applying for the admission to master's degree programmes.

Information about publications in journals with a non-zero impact-factor

If there are no articles published in journals with a non-zero impact-factor, assigned shall be 0 (zero) points thereto.

Requirements applied to the content and design of the list of publications in journals with a non-zero impact-factor

Failure to comply with the requirements herein shall result in rejecting to consider the respective application and the applicant's publication activity and, consequently, in assigning zero points therefor.

The first page must contain a general list of articles, whose teams of authors include the applicant, according to the specified form, and bear a handwritten signature of the applicant.

All table columns, except the one for the journal's impact-factor, must be filled out.

Publication activity Applicant's Full name: articles

| No | Publisher's imprint (authors, title of the publication, title of the journal, year, volume, edition, pages) | Journal's impact-factor ¹ | Link to the article on the Internet or DOI |
|-----|---|--------------------------------------|--|
| 1 | | | |
| 2 | | | |
| 3 | | | |

I confirm that the information provided is correct:

Signature Applicant's full name Date

2. Impact-factor information is available for free on the journal's website. Its absence in the application shall not be the grounds for refusal in considering the documents submitted.

3. The second and subsequent pages must contain confirmations - full texts of the articles organised in the order of their appearance in the table.

4. If the article has not been published but accepted for publication, the column 'Online link or DOI' shall contain 'in print', and either a confirmation from an editorial office certified by its seal (Russian translated journals) or an email confirmation of acceptance for publication (publication status: accepted).

Evaluation criteria

Points for publications shall be scored based on the statistic approach commonly used by the Federal State Statistic Service. For each applicant, the total impact-factor shall be calculated to the nearest hundredths (Average Impact-Factor) of the journals, which have published applicants' articles, based on the journal's impact-factor valid for the previous year according to Journal Citation Reports (Web of Science Core Collection, Thomson Reuters) (priority) and CWTS Journal Indicators (Scopus bibliographic database produced by Elsevier, SNIP) data.

The median value of the Average Impact-Factor (AIF) shall be determined, on the basis of which the sample shall be divided into four quartiles. The median shall be a certain mark or level of an indicator (a value in the totality of data), dividing the ranked data (sorted in our case in descending order of AIF values) into two equal parts. One part of the reference data is below the mark, the other part is above.

Further, for each quartile a maximum score value shall be established, which shall correspond to the maximum AIF (see the table).

| Place of the total impact-factor in sampling, % | Quartile 1 | Quartile 2 | Quartile 3 | Quartile 4 |
|---|------------|------------|------------|------------|
| | 100 -75 | 75 -50 | 50 -25 | <25 |
| Points maximum | 25 | 20 | 15 | 10 |

|----------------|----|----|----|---|
| Points minimum | 20 | 15 | 10 | 5 |
|----------------|----|----|----|---|

Within each quartile, a ranking is carried out from the highest value of the total impact factor to the lowest, and points are awarded to a particular applicant according to the following formula:

$$\text{Points} = \frac{5 \times \text{Applicant's Average Impact-Factor}}{\text{Maximal Average Impact-Factor}} + \text{Quartile minimal point}$$

Documents and materials confirming the applicant's participation in scientific events

Accepted are the abstracts of full-time conferences in three recent years (2020 - 2024), with more than 50 attendants. The applicant must be a presenting author, which should be outlined in the abstracts.

If documents are submitted online, information about the abstracts must be provided in a single file in .pdf format.

A confirmation of the presence of abstracts shall be the title page of the collection of article for the respective conference, a conference programme or a copy of the abstracts from the collection of articles.

Requirements applied to the contents and layout of information about conference attendance

1. The first page must contain a general list of reports, whose teams of authors include the applicant, according to the specified form, and bear a handwritten signature of the applicant. All fields of the table must be filled in.
2. If there is no links to the conference web site, abstracts of this conference shall be rejected.
3. To have the conference abstracts considered, the number of attendees must be at least 50 persons; the conference area must be chemistry or relevant sciences. of Science

5. The second and subsequent pages must contain confirmations organised in the order of their appearance in the table:

- ❖ Title page
- ❖ Abstracts from the programme of the conference, which unambiguously discloses the report type
- ❖ Abstracts
- ❖ Diploma (if it is of I, II or III degree)

6. If reports were delivered orally, the initiate score of points shall be doubled. Confirmation of the report type shall be the programme of the conference, which clearly shows that the report has been delivered at the oral session.

7. If the report has won a diploma (of I, II, or III degree provided there is a confirmation; attendee's diploma or certificate shall not be accepted), a multiplying factor 1.5 is used.

Evaluation criteria

Assignment of initial points shall be conducted in accordance with the reference table.

| Conference level | Initial points |
|---------------------|----------------|
| Youth all-Russia | 1 |
| Youth international | 2 |
| All-Russia | 3 |
| International | 5 |

¹ Please, indicate the conference type according to its title: All-Russia Youth, International Youth, All-Russia, International

² Please, indicate the number of the conference attendees (usually it is sufficient to indicate a named list of reporters at the end of the abstract book or calculate the number of presented reports).
