

List of countries, with which the Russian Federation has signed international agreements abolishing the legalisation procedure.

(the documents issued in these countries can be submitted without the legalisation stamp or Apostille; the translation into Russian can be certified according to the rules of the country where the documents are issued).

Albania (Republic of Albania);
Algeria (People's Democratic Republic of Algeria);
Armenia (Republic of Armenia);
Azerbaijan (Azerbaijan Republic);
Belarus (Republic of Belarus);
Bosnia and Herzegovina;
Bulgaria (Republic of Bulgaria);
China (People's Republic of China);
Croatia (Republic of Croatia);
Cuba (Republic of Cuba);
Cyprus (Republic of Cyprus);
Czech Republic;
Egypt (Arab Republic of Egypt);
Estonia (Republic of Estonia);
Georgia;
Hungary;
India (Republic of India);
Iran (Islamic Republic of Iran);
Iraq (Republic of Iraq);
Kazakhstan (Republic of Kazakhstan);
Korea, North (Democratic People's Republic of Korea);
Kyrgyzstan (Kyrgyz Republic);
Latvia (Republic of Latvia);
Lithuania (Republic of Lithuania);
Macedonia (Republic of Macedonia);
Moldova (Republic of Moldova);
Mongolia;
Montenegro;
Poland (Republic of Poland);
Romania (Romanian People's Republic);
Serbia (Republic of Serbia);
Slovakia (Slovak Republic);
Slovenia (Republic of Slovenia);
Spain (Kingdom of Spain);
Tajikistan (Republic of Tajikistan);
Tunisia (Tunisian Republic);
Turkmenistan;
Ukraine;
Uzbekistan (Republic of Uzbekistan).

Vietnam (Socialist Republic of Vietnam);

Yemen, South (People's Democratic Republic of Yemen);